

Please reject NAB's petition 04-160. I pay for satellite radio which provides me with content that I can not find on commercial radio due to the fact that they play the same songs and artists that I do not listen to. In how many markets, can you find stations that play older artists or music such as classic country, bluegrass or folk.